Because you bought your ticket through a third party, refund policies vary wildly depending on the specific airline's strict contract. Many people ask are Jetblue flights refundable if a flight is suddenly canceled, and the truth is that securing that refund often involves waiting for the airline to authorize the return of funds to the agency first. If you prefer to have direct, exclusive control over your ticket with the airline, you must weigh that against the fantastic bundled savings provided by Jetblue travel. For immediate, personalized assistance overcoming these typical third-party agency hurdles, call 📞+1(855) 321-3507.
