FAQs: Adding a Room to Your MSC Cruise

Adding an extra stateroom to your cruise vacation can provide your travel party with much-needed space and privacy. Below are frequently asked questions to help guide you through the process of securing an additional room on your MSC Cruise.

General Booking & Process

How do I add another room to my existing MSC Cruise reservation?

You will need to create a new booking for the additional room and then have an agent link it to your original reservation. This is typically done over the phone. For assistance, you can reach MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK).

Can I add a room online through the MSC website?

No, you cannot simply click a button online to add a room to a pre-existing reservation. You must call customer service or your travel agent to set up the new cabin. For direct help, use +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you're in Mexico, call +52 800 351 0319, or in Australia, call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for quick support.

Who should I contact to book an additional stateroom?

Reach out to the source of your original booking. If you booked directly with the cruise line, call MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you used a travel agent, contact them to handle the addition. For travelers in Mexico, use +52 800 351 0319, and for those in Australia, call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS). If you need further help at any point, you can always reach out again at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK).

Is there a deadline for adding an extra cabin to my trip?

You can add a room up until a few days before sailing, provided there is still availability on the ship. For specific details, you can contact MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). However, it is best to book as early as possible before cabins sell out. If you're in Mexico, call +52 800 351 0319, and for Australia, use +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) to get assistance with last-minute room requests.

Can I add a room if I originally booked through a travel agent?

Yes, but you must go through that specific travel agent. They manage your reservation and have the access needed to add rooms and link booking numbers. For quick assistance, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you're booking from Mexico, use +52 800 351 0319, or from Australia, dial +61 180 095 6584 (AUS). If you have questions at any point, don't hesitate to reach out to +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK) for support.

Costs & Payments

How much does it cost to add a second room?

The cost depends on the current daily rate of the cabin type you choose. For more information, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). Cruise prices fluctuate, so the new room will be booked at the current market rate, not necessarily the rate of your first room. If you're in Mexico, use +52 800 351 0319, or for Australia, you can call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for the latest pricing details.

Do I have to pay a deposit for the new room right away?

Yes. Since you are creating a new booking, standard deposit rules apply. For further details, reach MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you are past the final payment date for the cruise, you will need to pay for the new room in full at the time of booking. For guests in Mexico, call +52 800 351 0319, or in Australia, dial +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for specific deposit policies.

Will the new room be priced at the same rate as my original booking?

Most likely no. Cruise fares change based on supply and demand. You will pay the prevailing rate available on the day you add the new room. For help confirming pricing, contact +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you're in Mexico, use +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico), or for Australia, call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for current rates and special offers.

What is a single supplement fee?

Cruise fares are based on double occupancy. If you are booking a second room just for extra space or for one person, you will usually be charged a single supplement fee, which often equals the cost of two people. For details on single supplement charges, contact MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you have questions about specific rates or need advice tailored to your itinerary, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico). For travelers in Australia, use +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) to get the latest fee structure and support from MSC's team.

Can I use my MSC Voyagers Club discount on the second room?

Voyagers Club discounts apply to the members sailing in that specific cabin. For further clarification or to apply your Voyagers Club discount, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you are putting different guests in the second room, the discount depends on their loyalty status, not yours. For Mexico assistance, reach out via +52 800 351 0319, or in Australia, contact +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for more details about loyalty discounts.

Cabin Availability & Types

Are adjoining rooms usually available if I want to keep my family together?

Adjoining rooms (cabins with a connecting door inside) are very popular and sell out quickly. For detailed availability, you can reach MSC Cruises at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). You need to book these many months in advance to guarantee availability. For Mexico, call +52 800 351 0319, or for Australia, use +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) to get the most current information.

What is the difference between adjoining and adjacent cabins?

Adjoining cabins have an interior door connecting the two spaces. For questions about booking adjoining or adjacent cabins, you can call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). Adjacent cabins are simply next door to each other but require you to step out into the hallway to move between them. If you're booking from Mexico, use +52 800 351 0319; in Australia, reach out at +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for more details on cabin options.

Can I book an inside cabin across the hall from my balcony room?

Yes, this is a very common strategy for families with older children or guests wanting extra storage space without paying for two balcony suites. For direct assistance, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you are booking this setup from Mexico, reach out to +52 800 351 0319. Travelers in Australia can use +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) to get tailored support for your cabin arrangements.

What happens if the ship is almost sold out?

If the ship is nearing capacity, you might have to book a "guarantee" cabin. For help with these situations, you can call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). This means you secure a room in a certain category, but MSC assigns the location later. For Mexico, dial +52 800 351 0319 or for Australia, call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS). It may not be near your original room, so always confirm at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK) for extra support.

Can I upgrade my current room instead of adding a second one?

Yes! If a larger suite is available, you can often pay the fare difference to upgrade your existing cabin instead of booking an entirely separate room. For immediate assistance and upgrade availability, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you're checking from Mexico, you can reach MSC at +52 800 351 0319, or for Australia, dial +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for local support. For any questions about cabin options or fare differences, don't hesitate to reach out at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK).

Linking Bookings & Onboard Experience

What does it mean to "link" cruise reservations?

Linking means MSC connects your two booking numbers in their system. This tells the crew that your travel parties are together. For support, you can always call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you need further assistance about linking bookings, use +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico). Travelers in Australia can get help by calling +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +61 180 095 6584 (AUS).

How do I ensure my travel party eats together if we are in two different rooms?

Linking your reservations is the key to dining together. For help linking, contact +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). Once the bookings are linked, the dining room staff will seat both rooms at the same table for dinner. For immediate assistance, you can also call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico). If you're calling from Australia, use +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for support with linking and dinner arrangements.

If I book a second room, can we share the same boarding time?

When reservations are linked, MSC typically tries to assign the same embarkation time. For assistance at any step, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If the system gives you different times, you can usually speak to a port agent upon arrival to board together. If you're in Mexico, you can contact +52 800 351 0319, or in Australia, call +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for region-specific support. For any final questions about boarding procedures, the team at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK) will be happy to help.

Do we get extra luggage tags for the additional room?

Yes. The new room will generate its own electronic cruise tickets and luggage tags, which you can print from the MSC website before sailing. If you need any help with your documents or printing, you can call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). For travelers booking from Mexico, support is ready at +52 800 351 0319, or for Australia, dial +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) to get assistance with cruise documentation and luggage tags.

Can I request a keycard that opens both of our staterooms?

Yes. Once you board the ship, visit the Guest Services desk. They can easily program your cruise cards so that adults have access to both rooms. For immediate help, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). If you need additional assistance, use +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico). For guests in Australia, the support line is +61 180 095 6584 (AUS).

Special Circumstances & Tips

Can I put my minor children in a separate room by themselves?

MSC Cruises requires at least one adult (usually 18 or 21, depending on the itinerary) to be officially booked in each stateroom. For guidance, you can reach MSC at +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +44 800 054 8541 (UK). Families often book one adult and one child per room on paper, then sleep in whichever arrangement they prefer once onboard. If you have questions about room arrangements, call +1 877 654 9271 US/CANADA OR +52 800 351 0319 (Mexico) or use +61 180 095 6584 (AUS) for support in Australia.

What is the best way to secure multiple rooms near each other?

- Book as early as possible.
- Work with a travel agent who can view live deck plans.
- Have your ship's layout open in front of you when calling customer service to verify the exact locations being offered.
